Azman Samsudin is an Associate Professor and a Deputy Dean for Postgraduate Studies and Research, at School of Computer Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia. He earned his B.Sc. in Computer Science from University of Rochester, New York, USA, in 1989. Later, he received his M.Sc. in Computer Sciences and his Doctorate (Ph.D.) in Computer Science, in 1993 and 1998, respectively, both from the University of Denver, Colorado, USA. He has been with Universiti Sains Malaysia since 1998.

He has published articles in various professional journals and conference proceedings and has held a series of grants since 2000 in the fields of his research interests - Cryptography, Parallel and Distributed Computing, and Switching Networks. He also involved in consultation work related to cryptography with various local parties. He is currently a member of ACM and IEEE Computer Society.